BEHAVIOUR & HABITS

• Primarily a lurker/commenter with infrequent, but sometimes impactful, posts.

• Engages deeply with local community subreddits (e.g., r/lucknow, r/nagpur).

• Seeks practical advice, recommendations, and local insights for daily life.

• Shares critiques and personal observations, often with a critical or questioning tone.

• Responds directly and bluntly, especially when expressing opinions or frustrations.

• Capable of tapping into shared local sentiments, leading to viral engagement.

FRUSTRATIONS

• Lack of perceived quality, convenience, or value in local services (e.g., food, housing).

• Societal inefficiencies or perceived corruption (e.g., police, bureaucracy).

• Adapting to new cultural norms and finding suitable social/leisure activities.

• General 'crap quality' products or services in daily life.

GOALS & NEEDS

• Find practical information and recommendations for daily life in a new city.

• Connect with local communities and understand local culture/dynamics.

• Express observations and frustrations about societal norms or service quality.

• Seek validation or commiseration for shared experiences and challenges.
